NO BETTER MEN LIVE

Than This County's Republican Candidates.

HONEST, HONORABLE, RELIABLE

They Have All Been Successful In Private Life, and Will Follow Their Inclinations and Be Equally Successful In Conducting Public Business—Who They Are.

The ticket which graces the editorial column of the NEWS REVIEW is the very best ticket which could at this time be placed before the people. The national candidates speak for themselves, their names and deeds are known in every quarter of the country, and every name on the state ticket is the property of a man whose place in public life is not the heritage of a father's name, but the reward of toil and brains.

Hon. R. W. Taylor, the Republican candidate for congress, has so long been numbered among the public men of Eastern Ohio as to win him the admiration of all. His brilliant career at the Columbian bar and his splendid record in congress has made for him an enviable position. Endowed with wit and the power to express his thoughts, he is a welcome visitor wherever he may go. His course in life has been marked by a development of those powers that produce greatness, and there are those who declare with honest conviction that Bob Taylor will not stop on the congressional rung of the ladder, but will continue to climb until his name is even more closely linked with the other distinguished names of Ohio. Mr. Taylor's position in congress places him where clear judgment and honesty of purpose are in demand, and he has never yet betrayed the trust imposed in his abilities. His popularity in this county is not greater than in Stark and Mahoning, where he is known and esteemed.

Judge Burrows, appointed to the circuit bench by Governor McKinley and now a candidate for election, comes from a family whose name is the symbol of honor. His distinguished brother is a statesman of national repute, and many of his qualities are found in the judge. While he has sat upon the bench only a few times in this county, he has by his actions become universally popular.

The candidate for common pleas judge is P. M. Smith, of Wellsville, and there is not a man in the county who will for a moment doubt his success in November. His reputation as a lawyer was the great influence brought to bear upon Governor McKinley when he was appointed to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Judge Billingsley. His years of practice had eminently fitted him for the bench, and the wisdom he has shown since he first sat in court has convinced his friends that the governor made no mistake. To rule with justice and impartiality is by no means the least difficult part of the duties of a common pleas judge, but Mr. Smith has done it. His disposition of unimportant as well as important cases has been eminently satisfactory, and his conduct has been exemplary. Combined with a thorough knowledge of the law, Judge Smith has more than the allotted quantity of common sense, and together they make a man who will go farther in life than the position he now occupies. He has the confidence of the bar and of the people.

When J. C. Boone was nominated for probate judge, even his opponents, who had spent days and nights in a vain endeavor to defeat him at the polls, acknowledged the wisdom of the choice. Clear-headed and of strong character, he has long since made a name in the county. As a practicing attorney he has figured conspicuously in the courts, and his abilities have never been questioned. The gentleman has paid particular attention to the duties of the office, and can take his position after election so well qualified to fill it that it will be readily seen and appreciated.

John S. McNutt will be the next clerk of courts. That is universally conceded. From the announcement of his candidacy until after the primaries those who know him best never doubted the outcome. Possessed of a genial manner and qualities that bear cultivation, he made friends wherever he appeared. His success as a business man, connected with a clay industry well known in all parts of the county, gives him a vast number of business acquaintances, and they are always his personal friends. Mr. McNutt is not only among the most enterprising citizens of Wellsville, but his private life has made him universally respected. Lisbon is to be congratulated on the prospect of having him as a resident.

Everybody knows E. M. Crosser, whose candidacy for recorder will go down in the history of Columbiana politics as brilliantly planned and entirely successful. While a resident of Lisbon Mr. Crosser gained the reputation of a Christian gentleman, and the years he has passed in East Liverpool have but added to it. He is among the foremost business men of this place, and has the esteem of everybody. Straightforward and honest in business he has gained the confidence which compels success, and as he will carry his business methods into his office, no better man could be chosen. Mr. Crosser will make a recorder who will make no mistakes, but will constantly endeavor to advance the importance of his department by doing that which is right at all times and in all circumstances.

Chris Bowman will be a successful commissioner, an important office in the county. A progressive and yet a conservative man among the farmers, progress when progress is possible without incurring a load of responsibility for some other man to shoulder, he knows the needs of the county, and has made good roads a subject for careful investigation. The farmers and the people of the towns and cities will lose nothing by making Chris Bowman a commissioner.

The ticket ends with the names of L. C. Hoopes for infirmity director and John L. Straughn for coroner. These are not important places, some will say, but they are. All public offices are important, and it is necessary that they be well filled from the highest salaried position to that one whose fees would make no man rich. The gentlemen are like the others of the Republican ticket, reliable and trustworthy, and those qualifications will give them the desired support in November.

Compare these men with the candidates of any other party or collection of parties. Place them side by side, and even though the voter has no love for Republican principle he will vote the county ticket because its candidates will give an efficient, honest administration.

DANGEROUS FOOTBALL.

A Very Narrow Escape From Death or Maiming.

The football craze has certainly struck the hearts of the youngsters of East Liverpool, and they have gone absolutely wild over the game. For the past two days, at certain hours, they have taken control of the Diamond and a portion of Sixth street. At noon today, while a crowd of the urchins were driving the ball to and fro, the sphere was blocked right beneath the hind feet of a team of horses, and two youngsters precipitated themselves upon the ball, careless and reckless of the danger surrounding them. One of the horses raised his right hind leg preparatory for a drive, and it looked like death or maiming for one of the lads, had not the countryman owning the team caught the head of his horse and pushed it upward with muscular arm, causing the animal to postpone the stroke for the time being. So great was the peril that the bystanders stood appalled, while a lady standing near the Crosser-Ogilvie store-room sent forth such a shrill and piercing scream as left no doubt that her lungs are all right. Our police officers should forbid the game of football at once on our crowded thoroughfares.

SEPTEMBER WATER.

This Has Been an Unusual Year on the River.

Much inquiry having been made regarding the unusual rise in the Ohio in September this year, the following data is given. In 1866, during September, the river at Cincinnati reached a stage of 42 feet 6 inches, with the total rainfall for month 10.07. In 1868 the total rainfall of September was 8.21, and in September the present year it measured 6.40. Not since 1868, or for a period of 28 years, has there been such rises in the Ohio in September as this year. This year, as far as river stages and hard rains are concerned, is an odd year, and what is not generally known, but nevertheless is a fact, business has been better on the Ohio river this year than at any period within 10 years. More money has been made by the liberal, progressive packet companies, larger, better and more elegant steamers have been built, and there promises to be even greater prosperity.

FOR M'KINLEY.

A Leading Dairyman Leaves Bryan and Silver.

John W. Wise, a prominent dairyman and farmer residing near East End, was a brave soldier in the late war, and when W. H. Surles asked him to become a member of the Patriotic league this morning he not only put his name on the roll, but said he was glad to do it. He has always voted the Democratic ticket, but said he was proud that his first Republican vote would be for Comrade McKinley. The gentleman can no longer see merit in Democracy, and does not care who knows of it. He will vote as he shot, and is glad of the opportunity to do it.

HE WENT FOR A DOCTOR

But Mrs. Glenn Was Dead In Her Bed

BEFORE HER HUSBAND RETURNED

Well and in the Best of Spirits Last Night She Gave No Signs of Illness When She Retired at a Late Hour—Heart Disease the Cause.

Mrs. Catherine Glenn, a respected resident of the West End, was found dead this morning at her home on Fairview street.

Mrs. Glenn was the wife of Thomas Glenn, a kilnman employed at the Dresden. She has been a sufferer from heart trouble for several years, but has not been ill for several months. She was very well yesterday, and spent the early hours of last evening with a neighbor who is ill. Mrs. Glenn was in the best of spirits when she returned home, and had no thought that her life was so near its end. She retired about 11 o'clock, and nothing was known of her being ill until soon after 4 o'clock this morning when her husband was awakened by the sound of heavy breathing. He attempted to awaken his wife, but she made no sound and the husband was alarmed. He hastily summoned Mrs. Fraeish who lives nearby, and as soon as she arrived he went for Doctor Clark. When the physician was on his way to the house Glenn called on Father Smythe. The doctor found Mrs. Glenn dead when he reached the house, and was returning home when he met the unhappy husband with Father Smythe. It was the physician's opinion the woman was dying when Glenn left the house. Deceased was 53 years of age, and leaves no children. Funeral services will be conducted by Father Smythe next Thursday morning at St. Aloysius church, and interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

SOUTHERN COLUMBIANA

Filed Several Suits in Lisbon This Morning.

LEBSON, Oct. 6.—[Special.]—Southern Columbiana county filed several suits in court today.

Oliver Ashbaugh wants a mortgage on land in East Liverpool foreclosed, and the property sold to pay him $200 on a note given him by John B. Jackson. R. F. Stewart and Smith Fowler have some interest in the land.

Giles McGregor, of Wellsville, sued Joseph Withers for $171.55. He asks that land in Wellsville be sold to satisfy the claim. O. C. Vodyre, of East Liverpool, is asked to set up his interest in the property.

The Thompson Banking company, of Salineville, sued J. C. McClain and others for $725.96, the amount of a note held by the concern.

Joseph Bismar, of Wellsville, asks a divorce from his wife charging infidelity. The petition names Harry J. Aten, of Wellsville, as correspondent.

The case of Joseph Cook against the W. J. Clark company, of Salem, was dismissed by Judge Smith before testimony was taken by the defendant. The testimony of the plaintiff convinced the court the unfortunate happening, for which Cook asked $5,000, was an accident and the company could not be held responsible.

NO DEATHS.

But Three New Cases of Diphtheria Were Reported.

There were no deaths from diphtheria in the city today, but Doctor Ogden has added three cases to his list since yesterday at noon. William Earp, of Sophia street, was reported yesterday evening, and Mrs. McGonigal, of McKinnon addition, was found to be suffering from the disease this morning. The last case reported was that of a child of John Wason, of Forest street. Officer King fumigated three houses this morning, and that number of patients were pronounced cured. Mrs. McGonigal contracted the disease while nursing two of her children who were seized by it last week. They have now recovered. The township trustees have instituted a quarantine at the McDaniels house in California hollow.

OUR POTTERIES.

A Comprehensive Article From a Chicago Correspondent.

Robert W. Porter has an interesting article in the Chicago Inter Ocean on the potteries of this city, and the effect of the enforcement of the Wilson law on the industry. The gentleman explains the reduction in wages, and shows the decreased output of our factories due to the importation of European ware. He claims that with every pottery in the country in operation 10,000,000 pieces of ware would be annually produced. The reduction in cost to the consumer under a protective tariff is made very plain, and the condition of the industry is clearly shown. The article is illustrated.

STANWAY IS CAPTAIN.

The Rovers Will Have a Good Leader This Season.

The Rover football team met last evening, and elected Joe Stanway captain. Mr. Stanway is one of the best football players ever in the city, and will use his every effort to make the team stronger than ever. An endeavor will be made to secure admission to the Western Pennsylvania league, and if they fail in the attempt games will be secured with the leading teams of this section of the country. The team will lineup Thursday as follows: W. Beech, Jones, Eardley, Shaw and Farrell, forwards; C. Beech, Burbeck and Brown, half backs; Pope and Brownlow, full-backs; Stanway, goal.

A MAN WITH NERVE.

Bridge Worker Robinson Showed It to a Crowd.

While the second strand of the bridge cable was being drawn from tower to tower, yesterday afternoon, a pulley on the trolley wire near the Virginia pier became fast and refused to work. To remedy the defect an employee named Robinson fearlessly descended the wire from the top of the tower, and went hand over hand to the pulley. The work was done in a minute, and the man with nerve returned safely to the tower. Many who saw the bold act held their breath for fear Robinson would lose his hold, and drop a hundred feet into the river.

OVER HALF A CENTURY

Have Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan Been Married.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan, an aged couple residing at Georgetown, will celebrate the fifty-sixth anniversary of their marriage at their home this evening. A large number of friends and relatives from different parts of the country will be present and help make the occasion a memorable one. Mr. Bryan is 86 years of age, and his wife is several years younger. They have lived in Georgetown many years, and are well known and highly respected. James Hall and wife, and Alexander Bryan, of this city, are attending the celebration.

FOOTBALL NEXT FRIDAY

The Steubenville Game Will Be Played In This Place.

Manager Stevenson, of the Eclipse football team, this morning received word from the manager of the Steubenville Athletic club wanting to transfer the game set for Saturday with the Eclipse eleven to this city. The proposition was accepted, and arrangements made for a game at West End park next Friday afternoon at 3:45. This will give the boys one day less to practice, but they will be in the best possible condition, and will exert themselves to the utmost to win the game. The sport is becoming popular in the city.

A SPECIAL CELL

Has Been Constructed For Marlett the Demon.

A dispatch from Columbus says: "A special cell, made for Ira Marlett, the demon prisoner from Columbiana county, was completed yesterday morning, and the demon placed in it, to the great relief of all the prison officials. It is made with sliding panels so that it will never be necessary for anyone to enter the cell. A chute is provided for handing in to him his meals, and another for taking in and out his cell buckets. If he refuses to take or give the bucket his meals will be shut off until he surrenders."

ALMOST KILLED.

The Train Jumper Came Near Losing His Life.

A young man, evidently a stranger traveling down the river by freight, came near being killed at Ralston crossing last night. He attempted to board a freight train going at a high rate of speed, but missed the step of the car. For some reason he did not let go his hold on the car, and was dragged some distance. At length he was thrown violently forward, and rolled over the bank. His foot caught on a tie, and he had a narrow escape from being thrown under the train.

A RECEPTION.

The Ex-Prisoners Will Entertain the Grand Army.

The ex-prisoners of war decided last night to entertain the Grand Army, Women's Relief corps and Sons of Veterans at Grand Army hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 27. The entertainment will consist of a program and social, and a light lunch will be served.

HUNTER RAN TO TOWN

After He Had Been Assaulted on Calcutta Road.

TWO MEN KNOCKED HIM DOWN

He Had Been Butchering in the Country, and Was on His Way Home When Attacked—He Succeeded in Escaping Without Being Robbed.

William Hunter, a butcher, was assaulted and knocked down on the Calcutta road last night, and escaping from his assailants, made his way to the city as speedily as possible.

Hunter went to the country early in the afternoon to do some slaughtering, and was homeward bound at 8 o'clock. When he reached the hill beyond the Andrews farm he was accosted by two men. They had little to say, and almost immediately assaulted him. One man caught him by the arm, and the other dealt him a heavy blow with a club. He went down in a heap, and carried his assailant with him. The men rolled over and over on the ground, Hunter fighting with all the strength he could command. At length he succeeded in freeing himself, and struggling to his feet started for the city. He ran as fast as it was possible, and entered the butcher shop where he is employed about 10 o'clock. His clothes were covered with mud, and he was excited. He detailed his experience, but could give no explanation. Robbery could not have been the object, for he was roughly dressed, and did not present the appearance of a man with money. He had a revolver in his pocket, but forgot all about it.

GOOD NEWS.

McKinley Will Carry Kentucky and Is Gaining in Colorado.

Day Simmers returned last evening from a business trip through Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois, and heard next to nothing but politics during his absence. The campaign rages with great fury in all these states, both parties fighting hard, but the Republicans are everywhere confident they will win, particularly in Kentucky.

Mr. Anderson, of Broadway, has received a letter from his son, Joseph Anderson, of Loveland, Col., in which he says McKinley sentiment is steadily advancing. Last June there were but six Republicans in the place, and now they have a McKinley club of 190, and expect to make it 200 in the near future. The Republicans will carry the town.

A CALIFORNIA ROW

Ended In the Arrest and Punishment of the Principals.

John and Francis Glendinning last evening indulged in an altercation with Michael Bock, who lives in California hollow. A charge of assault and battery was entered against them before Squire Morley, and they were arrested this morning by Constable Bertele, and fined $7.60 each. John paid his fine, but Francis was short of cash, and was placed in the city jail to rest until someone comes to his aid.

A Bryan Club in Lisbon.

A Bryan club was organized in Lisbon last night, and the report sent out from that place today says it has 250 members. A leading Republican remarked when he heard of it: "That's in line with Bryan reports. Its just as easy to say they have 250 members as it is to say 50. They evidently see no benefit is not following their leaders in all things."

Church Meetings.

The synod of Ohio, composed of United Presbyterian churches, meets in Salineville this evening.

The Ohio Christian Missionary society is in session at Toronto. Reverend Huffer took a prominent part today, and Mrs. J. F. Quick will read a paper at the meeting tomorrow.

Summoning Witnesses.

Constable Thorne, of Wellsville, was in the city this afternoon serving subpoenas for witnesses to appear before the grand jury. The jury is hard at work, and witnesses have been summoned for every day this week. It is expected that a partial report will be given out Thursday.

Making Plans.

The executive committee of the Ladies' auxiliary will meet in the association rooms tomorrow afternoon, and plan their work for the coming year. A business meeting of the entire organization will be held Friday afternoon.

SOUTHERN COLUMBIANA

Filed Several Suits in Lisbon This Morning.

Lisbon, Oct. 6.—[Special.]—Southern Columbiana county filed several suits in court today.

Oliver Ashbaugh wants a mortgage on land in East Liverpool foreclosed, and the property sold to pay him $200 on a note given him by John B. Jackson. R. F. Stewart and Smith Fowler have some interest in the land.

Giles McGregor, of Wellsville, sued Joseph Withers for $171.55. He asks that land in Wellsville be sold to satisfy the claim. O. C. Vordrey, of East Liverpool, is asked to set up his interest in the property.

The Thompson Banking company, of Salineville, sued J. C. McClain and others for $725.96, the amount of a note held by the concern.

Joseph Bisman, of Wellsville, asks a divorce from his wife charging infidelity. The petition names Harry J. Aten, of Wellsville, as correspondent.

The case of Joseph Cook against the W. J. Clark company, of Salem, was dismissed by Judge Smith before testimony was taken by the defendant. The testimony of the plaintiff convinced the court the unfortunate happening, for which Cook asked $5,000, was an accident and the company could not be held responsible.

NO DEATHS.

But Three New Cases of Diphtheria Were Reported.

There were no deaths from diphtheria in the city today, but Doctor Ozden has added three cases to his list since yesterday at noon. William Earp, of Sophia street, was reported yesterday evening, and Mrs. McGonigal, of McKinnon addition, was found to be suffering from the disease this morning. The last case reported was that of a child of John Wasson, of Forest street. Officer King fumigated three houses this morning, and that number of patients were pronounced cured. Mrs. McGonigal contracted the disease while nursing two of her children who were seized by it last week. They have now recovered. The township trustees have instituted a quarantine at the McDaniels house in California hollow.

OUR POTTERIES.

A Comprehensive Article From a Chicago Correspondent.

Robert W. Porter has an interesting article in the Chicago Inter Ocean on the potteries of this city, and the effect of the enforcement of the Wilson law on the industry. The gentleman explains the reduction in wages, and shows the decreased output of our factories due to the importation of European ware. He claims that with every pottery in the country in operation 10,000,000 pieces of ware would be annually produced. The reduction in cost to the consumer under a protective tariff is made very plain, and the condition of the industry is clearly shown. The article is illustrated.

STANWAY IS CAPTAIN.

The Rovers Will Have a Good Leader This Season.

The Rover football team met last evening, and elected Joe Stanway captain. Mr. Stanway is one of the best football players ever in the city, and will use his every effort to make the team stronger than ever. An endeavor will be made to secure admission to the Western Pennsylvania league, and if they fail in the attempt games will be secured with the leading teams of this section of the country. The team will lineup Thursday as follows: W. Beech, Jones, Eardley, Shaw and Farrell, forwards; C. Beech, Burbick and Brown, half backs; Pope and Brownlow, full-backs; Stanway, goal.

A MAN WITH NERVE.

Bridge Worker Robinson Showed It to a Crowd.

While the second strand of the bridge cable was being drawn from tower to tower, yesterday afternoon, a pulley on the trolley wire near the Virginia pier became fast and refused to work. To remedy the defect an employe named Robinson fearlessly descended the wire from the top of the tower, and went hand over hand to the pulley. The work was done in a minute, and the man with nerve returned safely to the tower. Many who saw the bold act held their breath for fear Robinson would lose his hold, and drop a hundred feet into the river.

OVER HALF A CENTURY

A large number of friends and relatives from different parts of the country will be present and help make the occasion a memorable one. Mr. Bryan is 86 years of age, and his wife is several years younger. They have lived in Georgetown many years, and are well known and highly respected. James Hall and wife, and Alexander Bryan, of this city, are attending the celebration.

FOOTBALL NEXT FRIDAY

The Steubenville Game Will Be Played In This Place.

Manager Stevenson, of the Eclipse football team, this morning received word from the manager of the Steubenville Athletic club wanting to transfer the game set for Saturday with the Eclipse eleven to this city. The proposition was accepted, and arrangements made for a game at West End park next Friday afternoon at 3:45. This will give the boys one day less to practice, but they will be in the best possible condition, and will exert themselves to the utmost to win the game. The sport is becoming popular in the city.

A SPECIAL CELL

Has Been Constructed For Marlett the Demon.

A dispatch from Columbus says: "A special cell, made for Ira Marlett, the demon prisoner from Columbiana county, was completed yesterday morning, and the demon placed in it, to the great relief of all the prison officials. It is made with sliding panels so that it will never be necessary for anyone to enter the cell. A chute is provided for handing in to him his meals, and another for taking in and out his cell buckets. If he refuses to take or give the bucket his meals will be shut off until he surrenders."

ALMOST KILLED.

The Train Jumper Came Near Losing His Life.

A young man, evidently a stranger traveling down the river by freight, came near being killed at Ralston crossing last night. He attempted to board a freight train going at a high rate of speed, but missed the step of the car. For some reason he did not let go his hold on the car, and was dragged some distance. At length he was thrown violently forward, and rolled over the bank. His foot caught on a tie, and he had a narrow escape from being thrown under the train.

A RECEPTION.

The Ex-Prisoners Will Entertain the Grand Army.

The ex-prisoners of war decided last night to entertain the Grand Army, Women's Relief corps and Sons of Veterans at Grand Army hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 27. The entertainment will consist of a program and social, and a light lunch will be served.

HUNTER RAN TO TOWN

After He Had Been Assaulted on Calcutta Road.

TWO MEN KNOCKED HIM DOWN

He Had Been Butchering in the Country, and Was on His Way Home When Attacked—He Succeeded in Escaping Without Being Robbed.

William Hunter, a butcher, was assaulted and knocked down on the Calcutta road last night, and escaping from his assailants, made his way to the city as speedily as possible.

Hunter went to the country early in the afternoon to do some slaughtering, and was homeward bound at 8 o'clock. When he reached the hill beyond the Andrews farm he was accosted by two men. They had little to say, and almost immediately assaulted him. One man caught him by the arm, and the other dealt him a heavy blow with a club. He went down in a heap, and carried his assailant with him. The men rolled over and over on the ground, Hunter fighting with all the strength he could command. At length he succeeded in freeing himself, and struggling to his feet started for the city. He ran as fast as it was possible, and entered the butcher shop where he is employed about 10 o'clock. His clothes were covered with mud, and he was excited. He detailed his experience, but could give no explanation. Robbery could not have been the object, for he was roughly dressed, and did not present the appearance of a man with money. He had a revolver in his pocket, but forgot all about it.

GOOD NEWS.

McKinley Will Carry Kentucky and Is Gaining in Colorado.

Day Simmers returned last evening from a business trip through Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois, and heard next to nothing but politics during his absence. The campaign rages with great fury in all these states, both parties fighting hard, but the Republicans are everywhere confident they will win, particularly in Kentucky.

Mr. Anderson, of Broadway, has received a letter from his son, Joseph Anderson, of Loveland, Col., in which he says McKinley sentiment is steadily advancing. Last June there were but six Republicans in the place, and now they have a McKinley club of 190, and expect to make it 200 in the near future. The Republicans will carry the town.

Ended In the Arrest and Punishment of the Principals.

John and Francis Glendenning last evening indulged in an altercation with Michael Bock, who lives in California hollow. A charge of assault and battery was entered against them before Squire Morley, and they were arrested this morning by Constable Bertele, and fined $7.60 each. John paid his fine, but Francis was short of cash, and was placed in the city jail to rest until someone comes to his aid.

A Bryan Club in Lisbon.

A Bryan club was organized in Lisbon last night, and the report sent out from that place today says it has 250 members. A leading Republican remarked when he heard of it: "That's in line with Bryan reports. Its just as easy to say they have 250 members as it is to say 50. They evidently see no benefit is not following their leaders in all things."

INFAMOUS.
 The exposure made by Judge L. W. King, of Youngstown, respecting the action of free silver Republican and Democratic leaders, demonstrates to a nicety how the love of money is the root of all evil, and shows how men will resort to the most infamous methods in their haste to be rich. These so-called statesmen and patriots are nothing less than highway robbers; indeed it is an insult to the robbers to compare them to such unprincipled men—creatures who would dare to enter into a plot to stop all legislation, block the wheels of government and possibly cripple hundreds of thousands of workmen out of employment, in order that these ghouls, the silver mine owners and their willing tools, might become millionaires at the expense of the people, the wage earners of the nation. If Judge King's statement be true, and he bears the reputation of being a truthful and honorable gentleman, then is this silver conspiracy the most damnable feature which has ever marred the fair fame of these United States, and the men who concocted the scheme should be declared guilty of treason and hanged higher than Haman.

BARREN GROUND.
 Bryan leaders and speakers will make little progress for their silver doctrine in East Liverpool. The soil of this place is of the stoniest, and the seed they sow will not produce a bounteous harvest on election day. Their pleasant, smiling manner in defending anarchy and dishonesty does not find a responsive echo in the potter's breast, and their antagonism to Major McKinley never fails to fall with a suspicious disappointment. General Warner was brought here for the purpose of creating enthusiasm and bringing out what was believed to be a slumbering sentiment for Bryan. How neatly the gentleman failed is common talk in the city. Despite his success in the past and his ability as a leader of silver men he could not move East Liverpool to accept his false doctrine. But there is yet another chance, and that will doubtless produce similar results. Mr. Sovereign, labor leader and master of a great organization as he is, cannot induce sensible men to forsake the only policy which ever gave them good wages and steady employment and take up a new principle, untried and unknown. The Bryanites might save their money to advantage. It is but casting crisp bills into the fire to use them in paying men for talking free silver in East Liverpool. Our people have decided not to lend their votes in enriching the mine owner at the expense of their own pockets.

WIPE OUT TURKEY!

Sir Wm. Harcourt's Plan For Solving the Problem.

BUT ENGLAND CAN'T ACT ALONE.

Only a Military Occupation of Turkey Would Avail to Protect the Armenians. Must Co-Operate With Russia—Further Details of His Plan of Reform.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt, the Liberal leader, has expressed himself upon the Turkish question for the first time since the present conditions have developed.

He called upon the government to grant security and protection to the Armenians. The Turkish government, he said, could never be reformed until it ceased to exist. But, he added, England could not act alone, because only a military occupation of Turkey would avail to protect the Armenians. England must co-operate with Russia, the first step being to obliterate the Cyprus convention by which the island of Cyprus was ceded to Great Britain.

BRYAN IN NASHVILLE.

He Spoke to an Immense Crowd in That City.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 6.—The greatest crowd that ever turned out to a political meeting in the history of Nashville crowded about the streets here last night, shouted and yelled, cheered and applauded, and listened with marked attention to the triple nominee on his arrival. The train bearing the party was due at 8:35, but was ten minutes late, and it was nearly 9:15 o'clock when Mr. Bryan addressed his first audience in this city at the Haymarket.

At that meeting the five acres of ground in the enclosure was fully half filled with people who cheered the candidate wildly on his appearance. A gleeful club of 30 male voices opened the meeting with "Home, Sweet Home," the old-fashioned melody which the nominee has declared to be his campaign song. The candidate was then introduced by Senator Bates as the next president of the United States. He was cheered and applauded throughout his speech, and many times was stopped by the enthusiasm of his listeners.

A Tobacco Smuggler Caught.

DETROIT, Oct. 6.—The mysterious "Johnson," charged by Alfred Berchman with being the principal in a tobacco smuggling scheme, is covered in Detroit on June 4 last, has been arrested by special agent of the treasury E. O. Wood and brought to Detroit. There is positive evidence that the man is a part of a conspiracy of large proportions to defraud the United States out of duty on sumatra leaf tobacco.

Think the Strike About Over.

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 6.—The Canadian officials believe the telegraphers' strike is nearly at an end, the chief difficulty in the way of filling the vacant places with new men is the hostility of outsiders to the men replacing the strikers. Between Montreal and Toronto 65 special constables are distributed to protect the company's new employees. Trains are moving on fairly good time.

Prohibited by Postmaster General.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Postmaster General Wilson has issued an order prohibiting such notices as "please send out," or "please post up," being placed on the wrappers of third-class mail matter. Such notices will subject the matter to first-class rates. The words "personal," or "to be called for," are permissible.

The Passengers Shaken Up.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 6.—While trying to make a flying switch near here a Lehigh valley passenger train crashed into a locomotive on a siding, smashing in the end of the baggage car and disabling the passenger locomotive. All the passengers on the train were severely shaken up.

Removed by the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The president has revoked the commissions of Rudolph B. Schwickardi and Oliver P. Johnson, justices of the peace of the District of Columbia, upon evidence tending to show that these parties antedated pension certificates contrary to law.

Infonctions Against Two Towns.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 6.—The supreme court has granted a permanent injunction in favor of the private corporations, preventing Beaver Falls and Meadville from building municipal waterworks.

TOOK THE THIRD GAME.

Baltimore Again Wins From Cleveland. The Attendance Poor.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.—The Orioles took their third straight game in the Temple cup series from the Spiders by dint of brilliant playing, both at the bat and in the field, together with a bit of good luck here and there. The price of admission was reduced to the old time scale, but the attendance was not materially increased thereby, although the weather was perfect and other conditions all that could be wished for. Many reasons are assigned for the light audiences during the series in Baltimore, but the best is probably that Baltimoreans have had a surfeit of baseball in the past two months and "Temple cup" games are no new things here, hence do not attract more than would an ordinary contest.

The actual attendance was not announced, but it was about 6,000. The Cleveland men are woefully put out at the result and the Baltimore contingent look very grim when they talk about it. All hands left for Cleveland today, and the Orioles say there will be but one game in the Forest City, which they expect to win and thereby settle the contest for the trophy. Captain Tebeau was again unable to get into the game, a fact which greatly lessened the chances of his team to win. Score:

At Baltimore—
 Baltimore..... 1 1 0 0 1 0 3 0-6 8 2
 Cleveland..... 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0-2 10 2
 Batteries—Robinson and Hoffer; Zimmer and Cuddy. Umpires—Emslie and Sheridan. Attendance, 6,000.

Suspects on Their Way Here.

ROTTERDAM, Oct. 6.—Ten minutes before the Netherlands line steamship Werkendam sailed for New York on Saturday last, a carriage containing four men, Kearney and Haines, the Irish American suspected dynamiters, and two police officers in plain clothes drove up to the dock and the party boarded the steamer. Kearney and Haines are now on their way to New York.

The Union Men Excited.

MILLVILLE, N. J., Oct. 6.—The action of the glass manufacturing firm of Whitall, Tatum & Co., in offering to start their flint furnaces at a wage reduction of 20 per cent off the list rate, has created excitement in this locality such as has seldom been seen before. The threat of hiring non-union men if the old employees do not agree to the reduction has added fuel to the flames.

Torpedo Contracts Awarded.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Secretary Herbert has awarded the contract for building one of the 30 knot torpedo boats (the largest of 250 tons) to the Union Iron works of San Francisco and the contract for two smaller 30-knot boats, upon plans projected by the French builder Normandie, to the Bath Iron works of Maine, as was recommended originally by the heads of the bureaus of construction and steam engineering.

Clubs Can Sell Liquor.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 6.—The supreme court is in session. One of the most important cases decided and which has attracted universal interest is that of William K. Klein against the Livingstone club of Lehigh county. The decision is in favor of the club, and settles the vexed question as to whether social clubs have the right to sell intoxicating liquors to members.

EVERY man on the county Republican ticket will be elected in November, because he stands upon the national platform and possesses the ability to transact the business of the county with as much success as he has carried on his own.

INFAMOUS.

The exposure made by Judge L. W. King, of Youngstown, respecting the action of free silver Republican and Democratic leaders, demonstrates to a nicety how the love of money is the root of all evil, and shows how men will resort to the most infamous methods in their haste to be rich. These so-called statesmen and patriots are nothing less than highway robbers; indeed it is an insult to the robbers to compare them to such unprincipled men—creatures who would dare to enter into a plot to stop all legislation, block the wheels of government and possibly cripple hundreds of massive industries, throwing thousands of workmen out of employment, in order that these ghouls, the silver mine owners and their willing tools, might become millionaires at the expense of the people, the wage earners of the nation. If Judge King's statement be true, and he bears the reputation of being a truthful and honorable gentleman, then is this silver conspiracy the most damnable feature which has ever marred the fair fame of these United States, and the men who concocted the scheme should be declared guilty of treason and hanged higher than Haman.

BARREN GROUND.

Bryan leaders and speakers will make little progress for their silver doctrine in East Liverpool. The soil of this place is of the stoniest, and the seed they sow will not produce a bounteous harvest on election day. Their pleasant, smiling manner in defending anarchy and dishonesty does not find a responsive echo in the potter's breast, and their antagonism to Major McKinley never fails to fall with a suspicious disappointment. General Warner was brought here for the purpose of creating enthusiasm and bringing out what was believed to be a slumbering sentiment for Bryan. How neatly the gentleman failed is common talk in the city. Despite his success in the past and his ability as a leader of silver men he could not move East Liverpool to accept his false doctrine. But there is yet another chance, and that will doubtless produce similar results. Mr. Sovereign, labor leader and master of a great organization as he is, cannot induce sensible men to forsake the only policy which ever gave them good wages and steady employment and take up a new principle, untried and unknown. The Bryanites might save their money to advantage. It is but casting crisp bills into the fire to use them in paying men for talking free silver in East Liverpool. Our people have decided not to lend their votes in enriching the mine owner at the expense of their own pockets.

WIPE OUT TURKEY!

Sir Wm. Harcourt's Plan For Solving the Problem.

BUT ENGLAND CAN'T ACT ALONE.

Only a Military Occupation of Turkey Would Avail to Protect the Armenians. Must Co-Operate With Russia—Further Details of His Plan of Reform.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Sir William Verbon Harcourt, the Liberal leader, has expressed himself upon the Turkish question for the first time since the present conditions have developed.

He called upon the government to grant security and protection to the Armenians. The Turkish government, he said, could never be reformed until it ceased to exist. But, he added, England could not act alone, because only a military occupation of Turkey would avail to protect the Armenians. England must co-operate with Russia, the first step being to obliterate the Cyprus convention by which the island of Cyprus was ceded to Great Britain.

BRYAN IN NASHVILLE.

He Spoke to an Immense Crowd in That City.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 6.—The greatest crowd that ever turned out to a political meeting in the history of Nashville crowded about the streets here last night, shouted and yelled, cheered and applauded, and listened with marked attention to the triple nominee on his arrival. The train bearing the party was due at 8:35, but was ten minutes late, and it was nearly 9:15 o'clock when Mr. Bryan addressed his first audience in this city at the Haymarket.

At that meeting the five acres of ground in the enclosure was fully half filled with people who cheered the candidate wildly on his appearance. A glacial club of 30 male voices opened the meeting with "Home, Sweet Home," the old-fashioned melody which the nominee has declared to be his campaign song. The candidate was then introduced by Senator Bate as the next president of the United States. He was cheered and applauded throughout his speech, and many times was stopped by the enthusiasm of his listeners.

A Tobacco Smuggler Caught.

DETROIT, Oct. 6.—The mysterious "Johnson," charged by Alfred Bertram with being the principal in a tobacco smuggling scheme, uncovered in Detroit on June 4 last, has been arrested by special agent of the treasury E. O. Wood and brought to Detroit. There is positive evidence that the man is a part of a conspiracy of large proportions to defraud the United States out of duty on sumatra leaf tobacco.

Think the Strike About Over.

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 6.—The Canadian officials believe the telegraphers' strike is nearly at an end, the chief difficulty in the way of filling the vacant places with new men is the hostility of outsiders to the men replacing the strikers. Between Montreal and Toronto 65 special constables are distributed to protect the company's new employees. Trains are moving on fairly good time.

Prohibited by Postmaster General.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Postmaster General Wilson has issued an order prohibiting such notices as "please send out," or "please post up," being placed on the wrappers of third-class mail matter. Such notices will subject the matter to first-class rates. The words "personal," or "to be called for," are permissible.

The Passengers Shaken Up.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 6.—While trying to make a flying switch near here a Lehigh valley passenger train crashed into a locomotive on a siding, smashing in the end of the baggage car and disabling the passenger locomotive. All the passengers on the train were severely shaken up.

Removed by the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The president has revoked the commissions of Rudolph B. Schwickard and Oliver P. Johnson, justices of the peace of the District of Columbia, upon evidence tending to show that these parties antedated pension certificates contrary to law.

Injunctions Against Two Towns.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 6.—The supreme court has granted a permanent injunction in favor of the private corporations, preventing Beaver Falls and Meadville from building municipal waterworks.

TOOK THE THIRD GAME.

Baltimore Again Wins From Cleveland. The Attendance Poor.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.—The Orioles took their third straight game in the Temple cup series from the Spiders by dint of brilliant playing, both at the bat and in the field, together with a bit of good luck here and there. The price of admission was reduced to the old time scale, but the attendance was not materially increased thereby, although the weather was perfect and other conditions all that could be wished for. Many reasons are assigned for the light audiences during the series in Baltimore, but the best is probably that Baltimoreans have had a surfeit of baseball in the past two months and "Temple cup" games are no new things here, hence do not attract more than would an ordinary contest.

The actual attendance was not announced, but it was about 6,000. The Cleveland men are woefully put out at the result and the Baltimore contingent look very grim when they talk about it. All hands left for Cleveland today, and the Orioles say there will be but one game in the Forest City, which they expect to win and thereby settle the contest for the trophy. Captain Tebeau was again unable to get into the game, a fact which greatly lessened the chances of his team to win. Score:

At Baltimore—

Baltimore.....1 1 0 0 1 0 3 0-6 8 2

Cleveland.....0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0-2 10 2

Batteries—Robinson and Hoffer; Zimmer and Cuddy. Umpires—Emslie and Sheridan. Attendance, 6,000.

Suspects on Their Way Here.

ROTTERDAM, Oct. 6.—Ten minutes before the Netherlands line steamship Werkendam sailed for New York on Saturday last, a carriage containing four men, Kearney and Haines, the Irish-American suspected dynamiters, and two police officers, in plain clothes, drove up to the dock and the party boarded the steamer. Kearney and Haines are now on their way to New York.

The Union Men Excited.

MILLVILLE, N. J., Oct. 6.—The action of the glass manufacturing firm of Whittall, Tatam & Co., in offering to start their flint furnaces at a wage reduction of 20 per cent off the list rate, has created excitement in this locality such as has seldom been seen before. The threat of hiring non-union men if the old employees do not agree to the reduction has added fuel to the flames.

Torpedo Contracts Awarded.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Secretary Herbert has awarded the contract for building one of the 30 knot torpedobats (the largest of 250 tons) to the Union Iron works of San Francisco and the contract for two smaller 30-knot boats, upon plans projected by the French builder Normandie, to the Bath Iron works of Maine, as was recommended originally by the heads of the bureau of construction and steam engineering.

Clubs Can Sell Liquor.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 6.—The supreme court is in session. One of the most important cases decided and which has attracted universal interest is that of William R. Klein against the Livingstone club of Lehigh county. The decision is in favor of the club, and settles the vexed question as to whether social clubs have the right to sell intoxicating liquors to members.

Assaulted by Unknown Persons.

BEN FRANKLIN, Tex., Oct. 6.—D. Knowles, an old citizen, and his married daughter, have been assaulted at their residence about seven miles south from this place and probably fatally injured by unknown persons. Knowles has died.

The Weather.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS IN GOOD SHAP.

Secretary Olney Again Returns to His Duty in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Secretary Olney has returned to Washington from his summer home at Falmouth, Mass., and has resumed the duties of his office.

Matters are said to be in better shape than usual at the department at the beginning of the winter season, there being fewer issues of great importance pending and these are in less acute stages than is generally the case. The Venezuelan controversy has progressed slowly but in the main satisfactorily during the summer, and a couple of notes have been exchanged between Secretary Olney and Lord Salisbury since the publication of the last batch of correspondence. They are understood to be argumentative in tone, and while they do not by any means of themselves, bring the negotiations up to the closing point, they mark a fair degree of progress toward the clearing away of mutual misunderstandings and tend to simplify the efforts making on both sides not only to adjust the Venezuelan issue itself satisfactorily, but to effect an agreement at least upon a general set of principles that shall govern the settlement of future disputes between the United States and Great Britain by means of general arbitration.

The other open issue before the department is the Cuban question, but so far as can be gathered the administration as yet found no reason to change the attitude it has adopted towards the contestants in the island, though it is admitted that its policy is subject to alteration according to the development of the campaign.

TROOPS ASKED FOR.

Political Trouble Again Breaks Out in the Choctaw Nation.

TUSKOGEE, I. T., Oct. 6.—The trouble which has been brewing for some months between the full bloods and squaw men of the Choctaw nation has broken out more violently than ever, and unless indications fall there will be serious bloodshed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The Indian office has requested the war department by the use of troops to prevent bloodshed in the Indian territory as the result of a row over the presidential election, and the department has made the necessary order for troops to be in readiness to prevent an outbreak. The Indian office believes the presence of troops will stop further trouble.

ANTLER, I. T., Oct. 6.—The Choctaw council has convened at Tusahoma, Marshal McAllister has a number of his best deputies there, and Indian Agent Wisdom has sent Captain Ellis with a squad of Indian police, besides a company of the soldiers has arrived there. Governor McClinton will be inaugurated about Wednesday, and if any trouble breaks out martial law will be declared.

FELL UPON 20 MEN.

A Number Injured at a Barnraising Near Wooster, O.

WOOSTER, O., Oct. 6.—While raising a barn on the farm of Daniel Wile, near West Canaan, O., the frame work broke just as the men had roof timbers in position, letting the heavy mass of oak timber fall upon 20 men engaged in the work.

All of them received injuries, six of them having limbs broken. Cyrus Ewing, who had his jaw broken, and Henry Snell all of the ribs of his left side, it is thought, will die. The accident was witnessed by 300 people who had gathered to assist in the work.

A SCHOOLTEACHER SHOT.

She Was Fatally Wounded by a School Principal at Lockland, O.

LOCKLAND, O., Oct. 6.—Prof. W. A. Johnston, principal of the colored public schools, has been shot and fatally wounded Miss Mamie Carter, ex-teacher in the schools. Prof. Johnston is widely known in Republican party circles as a campaign speaker.

Miss Carter claimed that Johnson was the cause of her losing her position in the public schools. There is great excitement here. Johnston is held in jail to await the result of her injuries.

May Bar the Ticket.

DENVER, Oct. 6.—It appears doubtful whether the McKinley Republican electoral or state ticket will be printed on the official ballot in Colorado. The ticket nominated at Colorado Springs, Sept. 30, was not filed by petition and the time for receiving such petitions has expired. Now the silver Republicans are preparing a protest against giving the McKinley ticket a place on the ballot, claiming that it represents not the regular Republican organization, but a bolting faction.

Will Defend the Mines.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Oct. 6.—General Brooks and his officers have practically decided to make provision for defending the endangered mines by placing cannon on Carbonate hill, which commands most of them. The next object of attack, if further attacks be made, is pretty well understood to be the great pumping plant of the Maid of Erin mine.

The Clevelanders Leave Today.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., Oct. 6.—The president has definitely decided to leave here today, as have also Mrs. Cleveland and the children. The plan is now that the president will take the Onondaga to New York, and Mrs. Cleveland expects to go by train. She will visit the Benedicts of East Greenwich.

Used an Electric Motor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—An electric motor has made its first public trip on the Third Avenue Elevated road, on the branch running down Thirty-fourth street from Third avenue to the Long Island City ferry. The trip was a success.

Satoli Sails the Seventeenth.

The Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The treasury lost $102,900 in gold coin and $30,000 in bars, which leaves the true amount of the gold reserve $125,100,595.

A Fault in Modern Wood Carving.

The wood carvings and wrought metal work of the middle ages attract the lover of the picturesque by certain irregularities of line and angularities of curve and plane, which do no injury to the whole, yet give it a character not found in the work of the rounded, sandpapered school of today. The tools of these masters were often crude, and many of these accidental accents were doubtless due to this fact. Yet these men expressed grand ideals, and their work as it stands today has an individuality which is largely due to this very picturesqueness. There are comparatively few workers in wood today who appreciate this quality, and only recently has really artistic wood carving been done by American carvers. One of our most eminent architects, in speaking of the desire of his wood carvers to destroy all character by the sandpapering process, says that it is necessary to stand over these men and to take their work from them while they still consider it unfinished.—J. William Fosdick in Century.

Humble Pie.

The term humble pie originally carried no opprobrium with it. It was a pie made out of the "humbles" or "numbles," from the Norman French "nombrils"—i. e., the entrails of a deer. To this day it is highly esteemed in Scotland and in northern parts of England. So late as the time of Pepy, "humble pie" was served as part of the menu of a gentleman's table on an extraordinary occasion. Some writers derive the contumelious use of the phrase "to eat humble pie" from an alleged custom of serving humble pie below the salt, or at the second table. But this is not supported by authority. It more probably came into use simply through the similarity of sound, there being no similarity of meaning whatever between the nounumbles or numbles and the adjective humble.—New York Herald.

Adventure in the Sahara.

Tartarin narrated his latest exploits in the desert: "I was sinking deeper and deeper into the sand, and I owe my preservation solely to the fact of my being prematurely and completely bald."

"You are jesting."

"Not at all. The sun was shining fiercely, and a strong wind was blowing at the time. The sand drifted about my feet and rose gradually higher until it reached my chest—in short, there was soon nothing to be seen of me above the sand but a slight elevation as round as an egg. That was my skull. An ostrich, happening to pass that way, closely pursued by the hunters, came and squatted on my head. It was beginning to hatch me when its pursuers came to my rescue."—La Fanfare.

HARRISON ON A TOUR.

He Spoke at Charleston, W. Va., Today.

6,000 HEARD HIM AT RICHMOND.

He Poured Hot Shot Into Senator Daniel For the Latter's Change of Front Regarding the Chicago Riots—Made a Telling Speech.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 6.—Ex-President Harrison and wife and Murat Halstead arrived here today and General Harrison addressed an immense crowd on the political issues.

At Richmond last night the ex-president addressed an audience of 6,000.

On the stage were many of the leading Republicans and gold Democrats and also a sprinkling of silver Democrats. General Harrison's wife was present with a number of Richmond ladies. During the speaking there were rival cheers for McKinley and Bryan which caused disorder.

Mr. Harrison said:

I will thank you to be as quiet as possible, as I desire to speak to you in a quiet dispassionate way of some things that are of great interest to me, and I hope are of interest to you. I have come here at the request of Virginia friends to speak on questions now agitating us all. Virginia is not the enemy's country to me. [Cheers.] It is my ancestral home and its citizens are my fellow citizens. [Cheers.] I do believe that Virginia has as large a number of great and good men upon ground as any state out. I have never said that she had no good men upon ground. [Cheers and disorder.] There was a time when the north and south were against each other in battle line. That time is now only a memory. We all are again united loyal people. This great state and all those states that participated in the Civil War have sworn allegiance to the flag that the constitution and Virginia stands as firmly and united for their defense as any state in the Federal Union. [Applause.] More than that, not only do her citizens, but the Confederate soldiers stand now for the old flag of Washington. [Applause.] If it should be the sad fate of this country to be involved in war, if any foreign flag attempts to trample on our flag, Indiana and Virginia would charge together and shall stay that onslaught. The memory of Gettysburg and of Appomattox will force us not to stop until we are on the inside of the breastworks of the enemy.

We are here to claim for our states those rights which the federal constitution gave them. We are here to say that the constitutional powers of our national government shall not be trampled upon. I regret to notice the recent assault upon our just constitutional powers. The incident I refer to is the great Chicago riot. Men in violation of the order of the court resulted in contentions and punishment of the offenders, which was right. These courts proceeded on a line that was legal, that was upheld by the constitution and yet the president and the supreme court are denounced in the Chicago platform.

The speaker here referred to Senator Daniel and scored him for being a party to the Chicago platform when he had in the senate fathered a resolution endorsing President Cleveland for sending troops to Chicago. He held that the upholding of the constitution and the law was the most important of all duties of citizenship and argued that the Chicago platform meant to change the supreme court body so as to accomplish the ends of anarchy. He said that Virginians had just as much at stake in the preservation of the law as the people of any other state and urged them to vote to prevent it from being despoiled.

The second question that General Harrison discussed was the money question. He had exhausted over half of his time in speaking of the importance of maintaining law and order. His arguments against free silver were along the line of those he has used in other speeches. In closing he advocated protection to American industries. Protection would be a great boon to the south, he said. He mentioned McKinley only once and that was in his final appeal for "law and order, sound money, protection and McKinley."

At the close the general was vociferously applauded and many people rushed forward to shake his hand.

YOUNG MEN AT CANTON.

They Called on Major McKinley and Heard a Short Speech.

CANTON, O., Oct. 6.—Major McKinley had an unexpected delegation last night. The First Voters' club of Canton, headed by a band, marched to the lawn unannounced, and when Major McKinley appeared upon the porch greeted him with three rousing cheers. Then Attorney Thomas F. Tarnier made an introductory address, to which Major McKinley responded in a short speech.

Judge A. W. Tenney of Brooklyn, who has been on a campaign tour, dropped in for a social call. Major McKinley drove Mrs. McKinley to the depot yesterday, where she accompanied by Captain and Mrs. Heistand, boarded a Cleveland train to spend the day. The major met her at the train in the evening. During the afternoon he took a drive in the country.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.—The indications are that the excursion from Baltimore to Canton, O., the home of William McKinley, will include from 300 to 400 persons. Already over 100 persons have applied for transportation, and various delegations from points in Maryland along the route will help to swell the crowd.

The excursion is under the auspices of the Grand Army club of Maryland, and will leave Baltimore at 6 o'clock next Friday over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and will arrive at Canton at 9 o'clock Saturday. That morning Major McKinley will receive the excursionists.

In the evening there will be a mass-meeting, which will be addressed by members of the Maryland delegation. The chief spokesman for the Baltimore delegation will be ex-Congressman John V. L. Findlay.

SURE OF THE LABOR VOTE.

Chairman Hanna Denies That He Has Conceded Bryan's Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—When Chairman Hanna was asked what truth there was in the report that he had written a letter to an intimate friend in which he conceded the election of Bryan because Republicans were unable to control the labor vote, he replied:

"The report is absurd on the face of it. I have not written such a letter, nor have I at any time said anything capable of such construction. The report is what you newspaper men, I believe, call a 'fake.' I have too much confidence in the intelligence and integrity of the American wage-earner to believe that he will vote for a policy or support a candidate on a platform which means repudiation and a 53 cent dollar. I have never conceded the election of Mr. Bryan, and I certainly cannot concede it now when the tide is flowing so strongly and unmistakably in the direction of Republican success."

"Then you are confident, Mr. Hanna, of the vote of the workmen?"

"I am confident that the men who work for a salary or by the day will be with the Republican party in this campaign for honesty and a sound 100-cent dollar. Any other interpretation of the attitude of the wage-earners would be an insult to their patriotism, and their intelligence for they have more at stake in this issue than any other class of men. I don't propose to discuss in the newspapers our plan of campaign, but I will say that all our reports indicate that a great majority of the votes of the workmen will be with us in this campaign."

"The silver craze may be likened to an epidemic. Its acute stage was reached a few weeks ago by Mr. Bryan's nomination. Like every other malady it yields to careful and intelligent treatment."

WANTS ELECTORS WITHDRAWN.

George Fred Williams' Demand on the Massachusetts Democratic Committee.

BOSTON, Oct. 6.—A sensation developed at the meeting of the committee by the Faneuil Hall Democratic convention on Sept. 26 to nominate the balance of the state ticket, after the nomination of Hon. George Fred Williams to be candidate for governor had been accomplished. This committee met at Democratic state headquarters.

They had not been in session long when Mr. Boardman Hall, representing Mr. Williams, appeared and asked that the committee substitute for the electors-at-large nominated at Faneuil hall those nominated by the Music hall convention, in order that the vote for Bryan and Sewall might not be divided. After the proposition had been received Hon. John Sullivan, for the committee, said that the committee had no right to withdraw any candidates nominated by the convention. If the nominees saw fit to withdraw they could do so, and if any vacancies should be found the committee would see that they were filled.

The ticket of the Faneuil hall convention has been filed with the secretary of state. After the ticket is filed there are 72 hours given under the law for the withdrawal of candidates from the ticket and if the candidates desire to do so they can have their name withdrawn from the ticket.

Both Asked to Withdraw.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—The national Republican fight for sheriff in the city took a new turn when a number of prominent Republicans united in a letter to James L. Miles, regular Republican candidate, and Alexander Crow, Jr., candidate of the anti-administration faction, who has also been endorsed by the Democrats, asking them both to withdraw in the interest of harmony, and in order that a big vote may be cast for McKinley.

Had to Quit Politics.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Assistant United States District Attorney Robert H. Roy has not resigned his official position as reported, but has resigned as secretary of the general committee of the National Democratic party in Kings county. Complaints have been made at Washington in effect that Mr. Roy had been neglecting his official duties on account of politics.

The Town Elections Show Republican Gains.

$80,000 FOR MAJOR MCKINLEY

Predicted at the Coming National Election, Taking the Local Elections as an Indication of Republican Strength—Big Vote in Spite of Bad Weather.

HARTFORD, Oct. 6.—Town elections have been held all over the state excepting Hartford, New Haven, Bridgeport, Ansonia, Derby and Naugatuck. The results show a decided gain in Republican strength and it is believed to be an index to the greater political battle which will be waged at the polls four weeks from today and the extreme satisfaction with the result expressed by Lieutenant Governor Cooke, the Republican gubernatorial nominee, found a reiteration at the headquarters of the Republican state central committee, where it is stated that McKinley and Hobart would get upwards of 80,000 at the state election.

Though the elections presented many local issues which complicated the efforts to arrive at an intelligent idea of the leading party's strength, in the few towns that had held gold and silver Democratic tickets in the field; the gold men were greatly in the majority. The weather conditions were decided unfavorable for a large vote, but the leaders of both parties realized that upon the result of the elections an estimate for the probable majority in Connecticut in November would be formed and an effort was made in almost every town to get out the fullest possible vote. Republican gains were shown.

Some Items of Interest Furnished Our Representative by a Well-Known Lady.

Items pertaining to the domestic life of people we don't know, who live in foreign parts, are as a rule dry and uninteresting to our readers. It is only when such items touch upon some matter or individual of which the reader has some knowledge that attention is centered upon them, and in the present instance a perusal of what follows will be found not only interesting, but valuable. Remember always, keep it in mind, don't lose sight of the fact that one line of local evidence about any article is worth a column of foreign testimony. Read what this resident says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Wm. James who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I have been troubled off and on for the past eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins, up under my shoulder blades, and rheumatic pain in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes in the weather, and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing frequent fluttering of the heart and a shortness of breath. I have generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & C. Pharmacy, and got relief almost at once. The symptoms all left, and I have not felt any since. I feel much better and stronger generally."

Fade About Food.

It has never been scientifically demonstrated that fish and other phosphoric foods can appreciably improve the brain and mind. Fishermen, for example, and fishermen, who may be supposed to live largely upon fish, have never shown themselves to be in any measurable degree more intellectual than their neighbors. Indeed it may be plausibly argued that they are a little less so. The truth is that that particular food which best agrees with the particular individual and which best maintains his general health at a high level is the best for the brain and every other organ of the body, as well as for the whole man. Common experience has long ago formulated the saying that "what is one man's meat is another man's poison." Science now comes forward to tell us exactly the same thing and to impress upon every one of us the necessity of finding out the diet best suited to ourselves and sticking to it.—London Hospital.

An Example of Impure Air.

A large jar or stone pot smaller at the top than the bottom, or covered so as to leave only a small opening, may have a rubber tube dropped into it, through which the experimenter may expel his breath for some seconds. After continuing this for a short time, a lighted taper may be carefully lowered into the jar. The flame will begin to waver and die down, and will shortly expire, finding not sufficient vitality in the air to support it. When one compares the size of the stone pot with that of the ordinary room, and realizes that exhaled breath is insufficient to support the flame of a candle, it is not difficult to understand why children and delicate people pine away and die on account of impure atmosphere.—New York Ledger.

Actress Annie Lewis Dead.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Miss Annie Lewis, a well known soprano actress, has died at her father's house here of consumption.

Some times when the last spark of life seems almost extinguished, it is found, into flame again by prompt vigorous action. It is a mistake, however, to put off action too long; another mistake is to despair too easily. Both these mistakes are made in dealing with disease, particularly with consumption. It is neglected at first until someone names it. Then the name strikes terror to the mind; the nature of the disease is misunderstood; it is a blood disease, settled in the lungs. If it settled somewhere else the doctor would give it a different name.—scrofula, kidney disease or "liver complaint." But the name only tells where it settles. It is really all one disease.—Bad blood; and there is only one cure.—Good blood.

An abundance of good, rich, red, blood put into the circulation, cures every one of these complaints, consumption as well as the rest—if it hasn't gone too far. It is on this true physiological principle—fully proved by experience—that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures Consumption and all other blood diseases. It tones up the blood-making organs to produce a fresh supply of healthy, red blood; this carries new nourishment and life to the wasted lung tissue; or any other tissue that is affected. It drives out the poisonous disease germs which clog the skin, liver or kidneys. It is simply a question of purifying and building up, where there is anything left to build on. The "Golden Medical Discovery" will infallibly build up and cure. It cures cases which doctors declare "incurable." That Dr. Pierce has lost his means since Doctor Pierce's wonderful "Discovery."

The plain and hopeful truth about disease is shown in the light of the best science of the century in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is a volume of 100 pages, illustrated. It also contains letters from many who have been rescued from consumption. This great book is free, if you send 21 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Robert E. Hill, high priest, and George Croxall, king of East Liverpool chapter, No. 100, Royal Arch Masons, left this morning to attend the grand chapter meeting at Sandusky as representatives of the local chapter. Friday evening they will attend a meeting of the Mystic Shriners at Cleveland.

A number of young ladies who often go to the theater have decided not to obey the law respecting the wearing of hats in the opera house. Instead of appearing without headgear they have devised the tiniest kind of a bonnet, and do not believe the authorities will seriously object to the little things.

HARRISON ON A TOUR.

He Spoke at Charleston, W. Va., Today.

6,000 HEARD HIM AT RICHMOND.

He Poured Hot Shot into Senator Daniel for the latter's change of front regarding the Chicago Riots—Made a Telling Speech.

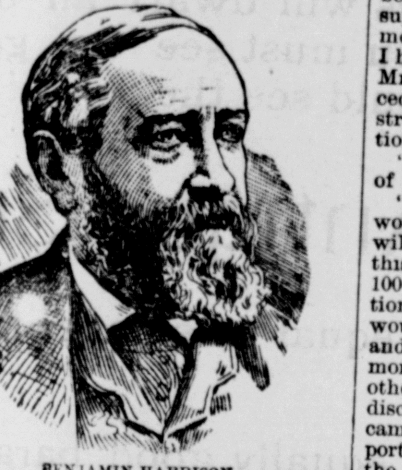

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 6.—Ex-President Harrison and wife and Murat Halstead arrived here today and General Harrison addressed an immense crowd on the political issues.

At Richmond last night the ex-president addressed an audience of 6,000 people.

On the stage were many of the leading Republicans and gold Democrats and also a sprinkling of silver Democrats. General Harrison's wife was present with a number of Richmond ladies. During the speaking there were rival cheers for McKinley and Bryan which caused disorder.

Mr. Harrison said:

I will thank you to be as quiet as possible, as I desire to speak to you in a quiet dispassionate way of some things that are of great interest to me, and I hope are of interest to you. I have come here at the request of Virginia friends to speak on questions now agitating us all. Virginia is not the enemy's country to me. [Cheers.] It is my ancestral home and its citizens are my fellow citizens. [Cheers.] I do believe that Virginia has as large a number of great and good men under ground as any state out. I have never said that she had no good men upon ground. [Cheers and disorder.] There was a time when the north and south were arrayed against each other in battle line. That time is now only a memory. We all are again united loyal people. This great state and all those states that participated in the Civil War have sworn allegiance to the flag and the constitution, and Virginia stands as firmly and united for their defense as any state in the Federal Union. [Applause.] More than that, not only do her citizens, but the Confederate soldiers stand now for the old flag of Washington. [Applause.] If it should be the sad fate of this country to be involved in war, if any foreign flag attempts to trample on our flag, Indiana and Virginia would charge together and shall stay that onslaught. The memory of Gettysburg and of Appomattox will force us not to stop until we are on the inside of the breastworks of the enemy.

We are here to claim for our states those rights which the federal constitution gave them. We are here to say that the constitutional powers of our national government shall not be trampled upon. I regret to notice the recent assault upon our just constitutional powers. The incident I refer to is the great Chicago riot. Men in defiance of law, in great organized bodies went through the streets with fire and sword, destroying property, stopping railroads, blocking the mails and preventing commerce. These acts had their origin in the red flag of anarchy. Mr. Cleveland felt it his duty, as president of the United States, to have the instrument of the United States of the army and navy to restore traffic and the movement of trains. The courts were appealed to and a writ of injunction granted to enforce the law. Violation of the order of the court resulted in contempt proceedings and punishment of the offenders, which was right. These courts proceeded on a line that was legal, that was upheld by the constitution and yet the president and the supreme court are denounced in the Chicago platform.

The speaker here referred to Senator Daniel and scored him for being a party to the Chicago platform when he had in the senate fathered a resolution endorsing President Cleveland for sending troops to Chicago. He held that the upholding of the constitution and the law was the most important of all duties of citizens. He argued that the Chicago platform meant to change the supreme court body so as to accomplish the ends of anarchy. He said that Virginia had just as much at stake in the preservation of the law as the people of any other state and urged them to vote to prevent it from being despoiled.

His second question that General Harrison discussed was the money question. He had exhausted over half of his time in speaking of the importance of maintaining law and order. His arguments against free silver were along the line of those he has used in other speeches. In closing he advocated protection to American industries. Protection only once and that was in his final appeal for "law and order, sound money, protection and McKinley."

At the close the general was vociferously applauded and many people rushed forward to shake his hand.

YOUNG MEN AT CANTON.

They Called on Major McKinley and Heard a Short Speech.

CANTON, O., Oct. 6.—Major McKinley had an unexpected delegation last night. The First Voters' club of Canton, headed by a band, marched to the law unannounced, and when Major McKinley appeared upon the porch greeted him with three rousing cheers. Then Attorney Thomas F. Turner made an introductory address, to which Major McKinley responded in a short speech.

A large American eagle has come by express to Major McKinley. It was sent by State Senator Eli Denison of CHICKING, CAL., accompanied by a letter of greeting from Californians.

Judge A. W. Tenney of Brooklyn, who has been on a campaign tour, dropped in for a social call. Major McKinley drove Mrs. McKinley to the depot yesterday, where she accompanied by Captain and Mrs. Heistand, boarded a Cleveland train to spend the day. The major met her at the train in the evening. During the afternoon he took a drive in the country.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.—The indications are that the excursion from Baltimore to Canton, O., the home of William McKinley, will include from 300 to 400 persons. Already over 100 persons have applied for transportation, and various delegations from points in Maryland along the route will help to swell the crowd.

The excursion is under the auspices of the Grand Army club of Maryland, and will leave Baltimore at 6 o'clock next Friday over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and will arrive at Canton at 9 o'clock Saturday. That morning Major McKinley will receive the excursionists.

In the evening there will be a mass-meeting, which will be addressed by members of the Maryland delegation. The chief spokesman for the Baltimore party will be ex-Congressman John V. L. Findlay.

SURE OF THE LABOR VOTE.

Chairman Hanna Denies That He Has Conceded Bryan's Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—When Chairman Hanna was asked what truth there was in the report that he had written a letter to an intimate friend in which he conceded the election of Bryan because Republicans were unable to control the labor vote, he replied:

"The report is absurd on the face of it. I have not written such a letter, nor have I at any time said anything capable of such construction. The report is what you newspaper men, I believe, call a 'fake.' I have too much confidence in the intelligence and integrity of the American wage-earner to believe that he will vote for a policy or support a candidate on a platform which means repudiation and a $2 cent dollar. I have never conceded the election of Mr. Bryan, and I certainly cannot concede it now when the tide is flowing so strongly and unmistakably in the direction of Republican success."

"Then you are confident, Mr. Hanna, of the vote of the workingman?"

"I am confident that the men who work, whether for salary or by the day will be with the Republican party in this campaign for honesty and a sound 100-cent dollar. Any other interpretation of the attitude of the wage-earners would be an insult to their patriotism, and their intelligence for they have more at stake in this issue than any other class of men. I don't propose to discuss in the newspapers our plan of campaign, but I will say that all our reports indicate that a great majority of the votes of the workingmen will be with us in this campaign."

"The silver craze may be likened to an epidemic. Its acute stage was reached a few weeks after Mr. Bryan's nomination. Like every other malady it yields to careful and intelligent treatment."

WANTS ELECTORS WITHDRAWN.

George Fred Williams' Demand on the Massachusetts Democratic Committee.

BOSTON, Oct. 6.—A sensation developed at the meeting of the committee by the Faneuil Hall Democratic convention on Sept. 26 to nominate the balance of the state ticket, after the nomination of Hon. George Fred Williams to be candidate for governor had been accomplished. This committee met at Democratic state headquarters. They had been in session long when Mr. Boardman Hall, representing Mr. Williams, appeared and asked that the committee substitute for the electors-at-large nominated at Faneuil Hall those nominated by the Music hall convention, in order that the vote for Bryan and Sewall might not be divided. After the proposition had been received Hon. John Sullivan, for the committee, said that the committee had no right to withdraw any candidates nominated by the convention. If the nominees saw fit to withdraw they could do so, and if any vacancies should be found the committee would see that it was filled.

The ticket of the Faneuil hall convention has been filed with the secretary of state. After the ticket is filed there are 72 hours given under the law for the withdrawal of candidates from the ticket and if the candidates desire to do so they can have their name withdrawn from the ticket.

Both Asked to Withdraw.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—The national Republican fight for sheriff in the city took a new turn when a number of prominent Republicans united in a letter to James L. Miles, regular Republican candidate, and Alexander Crow, Jr., candidate of the anti-administration faction, who has also been endorsed by the Democrats, asking that both withdraw in the interest of harmony, and in order that a big vote may be cast for McKinley.

Had to Quit Politics.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Assistant United States District Attorney Robert H. Roy has not resigned his official position as reported, but has resigned as secretary of the general committee of the National Democratic party in Kings county. Complaints have been made at Washington in effect that Mr. Roy had been neglecting his official duties on account of politics.

Nominated For Congress.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—John H. G. Velslage has been nominated for congress from the Seventh congressional district by the Tammany Democrats. This is the Wall street district.

German Reformed Church Synod.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 6.—Central synod of the German Reformed church has voted to remove the Theological seminary at Cheyegyan, Wis., to this city, where it will become a part of Calvin college. The seminary now has between 200 and 300 students, and a great many preparatory students. The synod adjourned to meet next year at New Philadelphia, O.

More Men Put to Work.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Oct. 6.—The Everett mills has started up in all departments after a shutdown of more than two months. The running time for the present will be 40 hours per week. At the Arlington mills an increased number of operatives were put to work.

CONNECTICUT IS SAFE.

The Town Elections Show Republican Gains.

30,000 FOR MAJOR MCKINLEY

Predicted at the Coming National Election, Taking the Local Elections as an Indication of Republican Strength—Big Vote in Spite of Bad Weather.

HARTFORD, Oct. 6.—Town elections have been held all over the state excepting Hartford, New Haven, Bridgeport, Ansonia, Derby and Naugatuck. The results show a decided gain in Republican strength and it is believed to be an index to the greater political battle which will be waged at the polls four weeks from today and the extreme satisfaction with the result expressed by Lieutenant Governor Cooke, the Republican gubernatorial nominee, found a reiteration at the headquarters of the Republican state central committee, where it is stated that McKinley and Hobart would get upwards of 30,000 at the state election.

Though the elections presented many local issues which complicated the efforts to arrive at an intelligent idea of the leading party's strength, in the few towns that had both gold and silver Democratic tickets in the field; the gold men were greatly in the majority. The weather conditions were decided unfavorable for a large vote, but the leaders of both parties realized that upon the result of the elections an estimate for the probable majority in Connecticut in November would be formed and an effort was made in almost every town to get out the fullest possible vote. Republican gains were shown.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 6.—Not since 1876 has there been so much interest taken in a state election, as displayed in the contest that is being settled at the polls today. In addition to the state issues, there are many county differences to be adjusted. As a rule only Democratic and Republican tickets are in the field, but in some cases there are Populist and independent candidates. The battle, however, is between the Democrats and Republicans and in the fight for important state offices, the Democrats will win by large majorities. Fifty thousand votes will probably be cast, and of these it is estimated that Bloxham, Democrat, will receive between 30,000 and 35,000 for governor.

A FOREIGN MISSION MEETING.

The American Board of Commissioners in Session at Toledo.

TOLEDO, Oct. 6.—Between 500 and 600 delegates attending the American board of commissioners for foreign missions which opened its session here today. Among others of eminence expected are Dr. Lyman Abbott, Dr. Washington Gladden, Dr. William Hayes Ward, Dr. Dan Bradley, Dr. N. Boynton, Dr. E. P. Goodwin, Dr. F. P. Noble Franklin.

The board was established at Bradford, Mass., in June, 1810. Originally it was supported by Congregationalists, Presbyterians and Reformed church, but about 20 years ago an arrangement was made whereby the Presbyterians and Congregationalists divided the associations between themselves. It is now a purely Congregationalist body and its annual income over $700,000. Dr. Edward N. Parkard of Syracuse, N. Y., will preach the annual sermon.

ferent name:—scrofula, kidney disease or "liver complaint." But the name only tells where it settles. It is really all one disease:—Bad blood; and there is only one cure:—Good blood.

An abundance of good, rich, red, blood put into the circulation, cures every one of these complaints, consumptive as well as the rest, if it hasn't gone too far. It is on this true physiological principle—fully proven by experience—that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures Consumption and all other blood diseases. It tones up the blood-making organs to produce a fresh supply of healthy, red blood; this carries new nourishment and life to the wasted lung tissue; or any other tissue that is affected. It drives out the poisonous disease germs which clog the skin, liver or kidneys. It is simply a question of purifying and building up; where there is anything left to build on the "Golden Medical Discovery" will infallibly build up and cure. It cures cases which doctors declare "incurable." That word has lost its meaning since Doctor Pierce's wonderful "Discovery."

The plain and hopeful truth about disease is shown in the light of the best science of the century in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is a volume of 1008 pages; illustrated. It also contains letters from many who have been rescued from consumption. This great book is free, if you send 21 one-cent stamps, to our mailing office, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

A THIRD STREET INCIDENT.

Some Items of Interest Furnished Our Representative by a Well-Known Lady.

Items pertaining to the domestic life of people we don't know, who live in foreign parts, are a rule dry and uninteresting to our readers. It is only when such items touch upon some matter or individual of which the reader has some knowledge that attention is centered upon them, and in the present instance a perusal of what follows will be found not only interesting, but valuable.

Remember always, keep it in mind, don't lose sight of the fact that one line of local evidence about any article is worth a column of foreign testimony. Read what this resident says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Wm. James who lives at 233 Third street, says: "I have been troubled off and on for the past eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins, up under my shoulder blades, and rheumatic pain in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes in the weather, and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing frequent fluttering of the heart and a shortness of breath. I have generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy, and got relief almost at once. The symptoms all left, and I have felt better since. I feel much better and stronger generally."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50. By mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for United States.

Fads About Food.

It has never been scientifically demonstrated that fish and other phosphoric foods can appreciably improve the brain and mind. Fishermen, for example, and fishermen, who may be supposed to live largely upon fish, have never shown themselves to be in any measurable degree more intellectual than their neighbors. Indeed it may be plausibly argued that they are a little less so. The truth is that that particular food which best agrees with the particular individual and which best maintains his general health at a high level is the best for the brain and every other organ of the body, as well as for the whole man. Common experience has long ago formulated the saying that "what is one man's meat is another man's poison." Science now comes forward to tell us exactly the same thing and to impress upon every one of us the necessity of finding out the diet best suited to ourselves and sticking to it.—London Herald.

An Example of Impure Air.

A large jar or stone pot smaller at the top than the bottom, or covered so as to leave only a small opening, may have a rubber tube dropped into it, through which the experimenter may expel his breath for some seconds. After continuing this for a short time, a lighted taper may be carefully lowered into the jar. The flame will begin to waver and die down, and will shortly expire, fluting not sufficient vitality in the air to support it. When one compares the size of the stone pot with that of the ordinary room, and realizes that exhaled breath is insufficient to support the flame of a candle, it is not difficult to understand why children and delicate people pine away and die on account of impure atmosphere.—New York Ledger.

An Insurgent Leader Killed.

HAVANA, Oct. 6.—An important engagement, in which General Serafin Sanchez, the well known insurgent leader, was killed, has been fought at the Reserva plantation, Province of Matanzas.

Prominent Englishman Dead.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Henry Byron Reed, Conservative, member of parliament for the eastern division of Bradford, and a well known lecturer and speaker on church and political subjects, is dead.

Actress Annie Lewis Dead.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Miss Annie Lewis, a well known sobrette actress, has died at her father's house here of consumption.

Sometimes when the last spark of life seems almost extinguished it is fanned into flame again by prompt, vigorous action. It is a mistake, however, to put off action too long; another mistake is to despair too easily. Both these mistakes are made in dealing with disease, particularly with consumption. It is neglected at first until someone names it. Then the name strikes terror to the mind; the nature of the disease is misunderstood; it is a blood disease, set in the lungs. If it settles elsewhere the doctor would give it a different name. But the name only tells where it settles. It is really all one disease:—Bad blood; and there is only one cure:—Good blood.

Facts About Dust.

Of all other factors, perhaps dust has its considerable part in the process of nature, for microscopic atmosphere does not always consist of the coarse motes which may be sometimes seen in the path of a sunbeam. There is much that is wonderful and mysterious concealed in the existence of dust, for even in the pure air, at an elevation of 4,000 feet, it has been ascertained that there are about 84,000 dust particles per cubic inch, but in a room in a crowded city they would amount to no less than 30,000,000 particles per cubic inch. It will be, therefore, easy to understand how important an influence this invisible dust must exercise over the health conditions of a highly sensitive organism. Although their chemical analysis is difficult the more exact elements of these dust particles can be scientifically determined. These minute atoms are at first microscopic, but become visible and are ever increased by contact with the surrounding land and water. Perhaps, however, that which concerns atmospheric hygiene most is the living organisms contained among the dust particles, or bacteria, as we call them.—National Board of Health Magazine.

Antiquity of Soap.

Soap is not a modern invention. It is twice mentioned in the Bible, first in Jeremiah and again in Malachi. History tells us that more than 2,000 years ago the Gauls manufactured it by combining beech tree ashes with goat's fat.

A few years ago a soap boiler's shop was discovered in Pompeii, having been buried beneath the terrible rain of ashes that fell upon that city in 79 A. D. The soap found in the shop had not lost all of its efficacy, although it had been buried 1,800 years. At the time that Pompeii was destroyed the soapmaking business was carried on in several of the Italian cities.

Pliny the elder speaks of soap, and says that because its price was so high many substitutes were used, among them a kind of glutinous earth and fine sand mixed in the juice of certain plants that made lather.

As early as 700 A. D. there were many soap factories in both Italy and Spain, and about 750 A. D. the Phoenicians introduced the business into France, the first factories being established at Marseilles.

An Extraordinary Woman.

Dr. Abernethy, the famous Scotch surgeon, was a man of few words, but once he met his match—in a woman. She called at his office in Edinburgh one day and showed a hand, badly inflamed and swollen, when the following dialogue, opened by the doctor, took place:

"Burn?"

"Bruise?"

"Poultice?"

"The next day the woman called again, and the dialogue was as follows:

"Better?"

"Worse?"

"More poultice."

Two days later the woman made another call, and this conversation occurred:

"Better?"

"Well. Fee?"

"Nothing," exclaimed the doctor.

"Most sensible woman I ever met."—New York Mail and Express.

A Lawyer's Retort.

Judge Campbell tells a story about the cross examination of a bad tempered female in his court. She was an Amazonian person. Her husband, obviously the weaker vessel, sat sheepishly listening. The opposing attorney pressed a certain question rather urgently, and she said angrily: "You needn't think to catch me. You tried that once before." The lawyer said, "Madame, I have not the slightest desire to catch you, and your husband looks as if he was sorry he did."—Exchange.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having correct vision will be able to read this print at a distance of 12 inches from the eyes with ease and comfort; also will be able to read it with ease and comfort. If unable to do so, your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eyes become tired from reading, or if the eyes are itchy, sore and inflamed, it is a sure sign that the eyes are weak and need attention. The human eye is one of the most delicate and important organs of the body. One of the most common causes of eye trouble is the use of defective spectacles. The use of defective spectacles will result in permanent injury to the eyes and may even result in blindness. Therefore, it is of the utmost importance that the eyes be examined by a competent oculist and that the correct spectacles be selected and used.
